

DIPLOMA IN MANUSCRIPTOLOGY

1. Objective: To disseminate knowledge regarding analysis and understanding the ways & means of classifying, recording, maintaining and preserving manuscripts in its various forms. Further the course will demonstrate and train in the practical aspects of the important procedure of procuring and displaying of manuscripts using new techniques and IT system.
2. Eligibility: Intermediate (+2) or equivalent examinations passed. Candidates who are deputed by the Govt. Public & Corporate bodies may also apply to the course. Students from foreign countries may also apply with special permission of the Administration Committee of the University. This diploma course will be conducted as an add-on course.
3. Duration: One year.
4. Course Structure: There shall be five papers, out of which four will be theory papers carrying 100 marks each and one Project / Practical Papers of 100 Marks.

Curriculum shall be as follows:-

Course Code	Course Title	U. E.	I. A.	Full Marks
Paper - I	History of Manuscriptology	80	20	100
Paper - II	Study of Scripts Translations.	80	20	100
Paper - III	Acquisition an preservations of Manuscripts	80	20	100
Paper - IV	Cataloguing	80	20	100
Paper - V	Prctical Training / Project Work.	--	--	100

The Syllabus may be revised if so required.

#